Attorney Richard Peel to Offer Free Contractor Seminar

Richard L. Peel, managing partner at Peel, Brimley & Spangler will be offering a free seminar for licensed contractors. Contractors are invited to either NSCB office (Reno or Henderson) to attend.

Peel, co-author of Nevada's Right to Stop Work Legislation, concentrates his practice on the areas of complex claims litigation for private, public works and federal projects.

The following topics will be covered:

- ?? Contracts and Subcontracts
 - Standard Form Construction Contracts
 - Contract Clauses Implied by Law
 - No Damage for Delay Clauses
 - Contingency Payment Clauses – Their Impact on Contractors and Subcontractors

- ?? Lien Laws
 - Senate Bill 206 – New Mechanics Lien Laws
 - How to Effectively use Mechanics Liens on a Project

- ?? Right to Stop Work
 - Real Options for a Contractor or Subcontractor that Stops Being Paid
 - When the Builder Should Stop Work on a Project
 - When an Owner or Builder Should Terminate the Contract

The seminar will take place from 10 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. on Thursday, August 21, 2003 at the Henderson office of the Nevada State Contractors Board and will be teleconferenced to the Reno office. The Henderson office of the Nevada State Contractors Board is located at 2310 Corporate Circle, Suite 200. The Reno office is at 9670 Gateway Drive, Suite 100. Those who wish to attend may call (702) 486-1100 x1139 or (775) 688-1141 x1139 by August 18 to reserve a seat.
